THE COHEN CO.
ON REMNANT DAY.

Much easier, because they are underpriced from Cohen's prices, and they are priced with all the intelligence we know how to place on them. "Damage," when imperfect. When an error occurs the money will be gladly refunded.

Another Great Storm of Broken Prices

for broken lots—such as it has been seldom the possibility of to create in their store—all these counters of merchandise tell their own story, and the entire acquired stock as offered to-day is for less than 33 cents on the dollar, and the collection is unrivaled in scope and variety.

MISS INGLES BECOMES THE BRIDE

OF MR. WATKINS.

A PRETTY CEREMONY AT HOME.

Both of the Popular Young People Members of Monumental Church

Choir-Charlotteville Couple Go to Washington.

Last evening at 6:30 o'clock Miss Maude Ingles became the bride of Mr. Charles H. Watkins. The wedding, which occurred at the residence of the bride's mother, No. 1103-1/2 east Clay street, was one of the prettiest celebrated this year. The large parlors were beautifully decorated with palms and potted plants, and a soft, subdued light was shed upon the scene from vari-colored lamps. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Barr, of Monumental church, of the choir of which both bride and groom are members.
